"Fine. Honey, how was yours?" asks Mrs. Smith.
"Well, Mom, Mrs. Dotson asked me if I could stay after school on Tuesday to help her with a new bulletin board. Is that ok with you?" asks Brian.
"Don't you already have other plans?" mom asks.
"No," replies Brian.
Why is this dramatic irony? _____

The audience knows that Mary is cheating on Andy with Brad. Andy and Mary are planning a wedding. Andy is in love with Mary.
Why is this dramatic irony? _____

The audience sees a large dog with its front paws on the table eating and licking snacks that are obviously set out for a holiday party. The dog removes his paws from the table when he hears people approaching. The people eat the food that the dog had been eating.
Why is this dramatic irony? _____

The audience knows that the attractive man is a murderer. On separate occasions, the audience witnessed him killed two other women he met in grocery store parking lots. The man approaches Connie who is returning her grocery cart. She smiles at him, and he strikes up a conversation.
